(U) New Jersey – Wiretap Leads to Alleged Drug Dealer's Arrest, Seizure of Cocaine and Cash

(U) Hudson County – The alleged leader of a drug ring now faces a federal narcotics charge stemming from a four-month probe that saw investigators wiretap his cellphone. Rayfeal Roman, 34, of Jersey City, was one of five people arrested last month as part of an investigation conducted by the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office. Federal authorities have since charged Roman with one count of conspiracy to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine. According to documents filed in the case and statements made in court, law enforcement obtained a court order to intercept wire and electronic communications on Roman's cellphone as part of the larger investigation into the drug network.

week's attacks on Burkinabe army headquarters and the French Embassy. Yesterday prosecutor Maizan Sereme announced that two of the suspects are current soldiers. Another is a former soldier who was kicked out of the military after a 2011 mutiny. Officials have said that eight assailants were killed during the violence on 2 March. Insider assistance with the assault was quickly suspected because the jihadists attacked a room where top army officials were to have been at the time. Instead, their meeting location had been changed at the last minute, preventing a more serious loss of lives to Commanders.
